My girl, my girl, don't lie to me
Tell me where did you sleep last night?
In the pines, in the pines
Where the sun never shines
I would shiver the whole night through

My girl, my girl, where will you go?
I'm going where the cold wind blows
In the pines, in the pines
Where the sun never shines
I would shiver the whole night through

Her husband was a hard working man
Died about a mile from here
His head was found in a driving wheel
But his body never was found

I asked my captain for the time of day
He said he throwed his watch away
A long steel rail and a short cross tie
I'm on my way back home

The longest train I ever saw
Went down that Georgia line
The engine passed at six o'clock
And the cab passed by at nine

My girl, My girl, what have I done
That makes you treat me so You caused me to weep, you caused me to mourn
You caused me to leave my home

The longest train I ever saw was a hundred coaches long
And the only girl I ever loved jumped on that train and gone
